Dear Tufts Environmental,

Anthony P. Monaco was officially inaugurated today as the 13th president of Tufts University and we couldn't be more excited! The new head of our institution not only comes across as warm, accessible and very capable, he has proven to be one social media-savvy leader. You can reach out to him through Facebook and Twitter \(@MonacoAnthony\), and we know firsthand that he does listen and respond to you. You may already be aware that he is in the process of putting together a Sustainability Council for Tufts, and as he said himself in his inaugural address, "...you must have the courage to express yourself if you are going to make a difference."
