Volume 2 Issue 4

September 2011

Dear Tufts Environmental,

Today may be the last day to participate in Massachusetts Car Free Week but the Zero Waste Challenge is going on until next Wednesday. Join the Eco-Reps and the rest of our team here at the Office of Sustainability and see just how much trash you can avoid generating from now until September 28. You may be surprised to discover how much you can or cannot compost/recycle! Share your story by adding a comment on our blog  or posting on our wall in Facebook .

How would your behavior change if you have to collect all of your trash for a week and carry it around on your backpack?

Here is your weekly, in-between-newsletters update on new events and jobs. May you have a fun and (hopefully) waste-free weekend!

- Fannie
