

Sustainable Living

Eco-Reps are paid students who work for the Office of Sustainability to promote sustainability in their residence halls and on campus. They plan educational events, run the residence hall compost program, and provide sustainability resources to their peers.

Learn more: go.tufts.edu/ecoreps or facebook.com/tuftsecoreps

Contact: tuftsecoreps@gmail.com

The Hive is a sustainability-themed housing unit located in the Latin Way apartments. If you'd like to intentionally incorporate sustainability into your residential experience, consider applying to live in The Hive!

To learn more, check out the Get Involved tab at sustainability.tufts.edu, under Student Opportunities.

More Groups to Check Out

- Amnesty International
- TuftScope
- Students Acting for Gender Equality (SAGE)
- Generation Citizen
- United for Immigrant Justice (UIJ)

Office of Sustainability

Sustainability at Tufts is a collective effort spanning departments, offices, and all Tufts campuses. If you're interested in learning more about sustainability at the university, please contact the Office of Sustainability to be put in touch with the right people.

Learn more: sustainability.tufts.edu

Contact: 617-627-3191 or sustainabilityoffice@tufts.edu

Stay Connected

Newsletter: bit.ly/greentuftnews

greenttufts

Tufts
UNIVERSITY

Office of Sustainability

Environmental Studies

If you're interested in taking environmental and sustainability-related courses, look into the multidisciplinary Environmental Studies program, offered as stand-alone major or co-major, with five thematic tracks to choose from. Minors in Food Systems & Nutrition and Environmental Science & Policy are also offered.

Learn more: go.tufts.edu/ENVS
Newsletter: bit.ly/ENVSweekly

Get Involved

with Sustainability
at Tufts

sustainability.tufts.edu

Tufts
UNIVERSITY

sustainability
Supporting a university-wide commitment

Staying Active

Tufts Bikes is a student-run organization promoting biking culture at Tufts. They maintain a free campus bikeshare program available through the Tisch library, and offer free bike repair services at their shop at 28 Sawyer Ave. If you're interested in learning about bike repair, safety, administration and more, get involved with Tufts Bikes!

Learn more: facebook.com/tuftsbikes

Tufts Mountain Club (TMC)

organizes all types of outdoor activities - hiking, climbing, kayaking, skiing, and more! They also run the Tufts Loj, located in Woodstock, NH. Become a member to take advantage of outdoor opportunities and gear rental, or get involved as a trip leader!

Learn more: facebook.com/tuftsmountainclub

Economics

Tufts New Economy (TNE)

seeks to create new and tap into existing networks for both discussion and action toward a more just and sustainable economy.

Learn more: bit.ly/2E2RNqQ

Public Facebook Group: Tufts New Economy

General Engagement

Students for Environmental Awareness (SEA)

is a community of environmentally-minded students who engage with sustainability issues on campus.

Learn more: facebook.com/tuftssustainable

Tufts Climate Action (TCA) is committed to fighting climate change centered on justice. Learn more: facebook.com/tuftclimateaction

Tufts Energy Group focuses on engaging and educating the Tufts community about energy issues.

More: facebook.com/tuftenergygroup

Tufts Labor Coalition promotes community between students and campus through events and activism.

Learn more: facebook.com/tuftslaborcoalition

Tufts Urban Policy, Planning, and Prosperity (UP3)

allows students to learn about city planning, architecture, transportation, sustainable design, and more.

Learn more: facebook.com/TuftsUP3

Tufts Student Action (TSA) is a student group devoted to building student power to fight for racial, economic, and gender justice. Learn more: facebook.com/tuftstudentaction

Sustainable Food

Tom Thumb's Student Garden is a student-run garden located behind Latin Way apartments. Students cultivate produce and other plants while learning about gardening techniques and low-impact agriculture.

Public Facebook Group: Tufts Student Garden

Food Rescue Collaborative

works to address food insecurity while minimizing food waste from the dining halls. Student volunteers turn dining hall leftovers into complete meals to donate to local families in need.

Learn more: go.tufts.edu/foodrescue

LCS Food Rescue recovers food from sites where it would otherwise be thrown away (despite its nutritious, edible condition) and delivers it to partner recipients to support individuals and households in need.

Learn more: lcs.tufts.edu/food-rescue

Tufts Veg Society promotes discussion about the social and environmental impacts of plant-based diets through events and activism. Learn more: bit.ly/tuftsvegsociety

Contact: tuftsveggiesociety@gmail.com

Food for Thought seeks to address current food issues, including sustainability, nutrition, social justice, and more.

Learn more: facebook.com/foodiesattofts

